The Palace,

Mysore.

10th January 1923.

My dear Sir,

Please refer to your letter of March 27, 1922, stating that there was no objection to the appointment of Dr. Arumugam as a wholetime Durbar Surgeon and giving him a remuneration of Rs. 900/- per mensem, excluding the pension of Rs. 500/- which he might be permitted to retain.

His Highness would like to increase Dr. Arumugam's honorarium to Rs. 900/- per mensem. Having regard to the responsible nature of Dr. Arumugam's work in the Palace, His Highness is inclined to think that the increase now recommended is not unreasonable in his case, and he hopes that you will have no objection to it.

I may say here that when Mr. Seshagiri Rao retires from service in September next, a junior
